Every year, we visit all of the Norwalk cemeteries and replace the flags, as necessary, to honor the veterans buried there.

This year's Cemetery Visitation will begin at 10a on Sunday, May 19 with a brief ceremony at City Hall. After which, participants will be split in two groups, each group will have a leader with the schedule. Taps will be played and a short prayer will be read at each stop.

At the conclusion, the groups will reconvene at the Shea-Magrath Memorial at Calf Pasture Beach for the concert and Veterans Memorial Ceremony.

Talcottville Connecticut Memorial Day Parade 2024

Vernon's Talcottville Memorial Parade, set to commence at 9 A.M. on Sunday, May 26, 2024, holds a revered place in Connecticut's Memorial Day traditions despite its brief quarter-mile route. Beginning at the Talcottville Church on 10 Elm Hill Road, the parade winds through historic mills and homes before concluding at Mount Hope Cemetery, behind 100 Main St.

Featuring vintage cars, a fife and drum corps, and open participation for all, this parade emphasizes inclusivity, where spectators become active participants rather than mere onlookers. Following the parade, a poignant ceremony at Mount Hope Cemetery includes a recitation of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

At the heart of Mount Hope Cemetery stands a majestic Civil War memorial erected in 1869, one of the nation's oldest, paying tribute to soldiers whose names adorn its stone structure. Among those honored are Capt. Frank Stoughton, Horace Hunn, Philip Foster, Henry Loomis, Alonzo Hills, James Bushnell, Orrin Brown, and Francis Brantley, each bearing witness to the harrowing toll of the Civil War through their sacrifices.

All are welcome to join the parade, which is short enough for the kids, assembling in the church parking lot at 10 Elm Hill Road at 8:30 a.m.
