Sunday, October 12th 1:30PM

The Public is welcome

Scouts participating are encouraged to arrive in uniform at 1:10PM

The flag is a sacred emblem of our country, symbolizing the liberty secured by the sacrifices of our fallen heroes. When a flag becomes worn, torn, faded, or soiled, it should be replaced and "retired" with dignity, traditionally through incineration. A flag retirement ceremony will include Boy and Girl Scouts participating in the retirement detail, reading the poem "I Am the Flag" and leading the Pledge of Allegiance.
